

Scinclair is, without question, using the airwaves to promote a biased media ad under the guise that it is a credible documentary. This is not serving the public interest in this most important election. This is yet another example of what happens when large companies get control over the airwaves. This only harms democracy. A concerned citizen.